2017 SCHEDULE

Reigning National Champion Clemson announced its 2017 football schedule in January. The Tigers will face a slate that includes nine teams that went to bowl games in 2016, eight FBS teams that finished with a winning record, and four teams that finished in the final top 25 of both polls.

Dabo Swinney's team will play five games in the month of September for the first time since 2012, and three of those games will be against teams that finished in the top 25 last year. The seven-game home schedule includes six games against teams that had winning records in 2016, including Auburn and Florida State who finished the season in the top 25.

"It is always exciting when the schedule for the next season is released," said Swinney, who is just eight wins from moving into second place on Clemson's career victories list. "We will have a challenging first month with three games against teams that finished in the top 25 last year. And we will play that schedule with a quarterback in his first year as the starter.

"The open date is basically in the middle of the schedule like it was last year, so we don't have to play 10 straight weeks like we had to in 2015. I also like the fact that we don't have to play a conference game on a very short week (Saturday to Thursday) as we have had to do each of the last two years. From a preparation standpoint, Thursday night games are difficult.

"Overall it is a challenging schedule and as defending National Champion we will get everyone's best effort."

Just as Clemson finished 2016 by playing consecutive games against teams from Ohio and Alabama, the Tigers will open 2017 by playing teams from Ohio and Alabama.

The Tigers first game as defending National Champions will be Sept. 2 against Mid-American Conference member Kent State. It will be the first time Clemson has played Kent State, and the first time the program has played a MAC school since 2012 when the Tigers faced Ball State in the home opener. It will be just the fifth time Clemson has played a school from the MAC.

Auburn comes to Clemson on Sept. 9, its first appearance in Death Valley since 2011 when Clemson ended Auburn's 17-game winning streak. Clemson won 19-13 at Auburn last season, its fewest points scored in a game all year. Clemson has won three in a row in the series since losing an overtime game at Auburn in 2010. Auburn finished with an 8-5 record in 2016 and a No. 22 ranking in the final coaches poll.

Clemson opens defense of its Atlantic Coast Conference Championship on Sept. 16 at Louisville. The Tigers have in fact won the last two ACC titles and have a 44-7 record against ACC teams the last six years.

The Cardinals finished 9-4 last year and had a No. 20 final ranking in the coaches poll. They will be led by 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson. The Tigers have won three straight in the series by seven points or less, the first time Clemson has done that in any series since the 1965-67 era when the Tigers won three straight over Duke by a touchdown or less.

Boston College comes to Clemson on Sept. 23 in a battle for the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy. The Tigers have won seven of eight and six in a row in the series since Swinney became Clemson's interim head coach in 2008. That 27-21 victory at Boston College in 2008 was Swinney's first win. He now has 89.

Clemson closes out a busy first month on Sept. 30 with a trip to Virginia Tech. This will be a rematch of the 2016 ACC Championship game and will be Clemson's first trip to Blacksburg since 2011, when the Tigers defeated the No. 10 Hokies, 23-3. Virginia Tech won 10 games under first-year coach Justin Fuente in 2016.

Clemson returns home to face Wake Forest on Oct. 7. The Demon Deacons finished with a winning season in 2016, including a bowl triumph over Temple. Clemson is 8-0 against Wake Forest since Swinney became head coach.

Clemson plays its only non-Saturday game of the year at Syracuse on Friday, Oct. 13. Clemson has won all four games in the series since the Orange joined the ACC.

After an open date, the Tigers face Georgia Tech in Death Valley on Oct. 28. Clemson won in Atlanta last year, a first for the program since 2003. The Tigers have won four of five in the series, including four in a row at Memorial Stadium since 2008.

The month of November begins at NC State. The two teams went to overtime last year before Clemson came away with a 24-17 victory. Clemson has won five in a row in the series and five of the last six in Raleigh.

Clemson plays its final conference game against Florida State at Memorial Stadium on Nov. 11. The winner of this game has played for the ACC Championship every year since 2008. Both teams finished in the top 10 last year, as the Seminoles beat Michigan in the Orange Bowl to finish 10-3 and No. 8 in both polls.

Clemson concludes the regular season with a pair of non-conference games. The Citadel will come to Clemson for the final home game. The Bulldogs were 10-2 last year and qualified for the FCS Playoffs. They finished No. 1 in the nation at the FCS level in rushing.

Clemson concludes the regular season at South Carolina on Nov. 25. The Tigers have won three straight over their archrival.

2017 OUTLOOK

Clemson head coach Dabo Swinney is faced with a couple of challenges no other coach at the FBS level must address in 2017. First, his team won the National Championship in 2016 and must deal with the challenges that naturally follow that accomplishment.

Second, on the offensive side of the football, he must replace a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher, the only FBS coach in the nation who must replace that level of production in those three areas.

But the 10th-year head coach who is just 47 years of age has built a program at Clemson, not a one-or-two-year wonder. The Tigers are already on a streak of six straight seasons with at least 10 wins, something only Clemson and Alabama can boast. The six-year run includes 70 victories, three ACC Championships and six bowl wins. Swinney has been the head coach for eight full seasons, and Clemson has finished in the top 25 seven of those years.

The Tigers have been to four BCS or New Year's Six bowls in the last six years, third-most in the nation, and has been in the College Football Playoff top four each of the last 12 rankings. Clemson has been ranked in the AP top 25 in 91 of the last 98 polls.

Swinney's approach is the same, whether the Tigers are coming off a losing season or a National Championship.

"We don't look at it as defending a title, we are attacking another," Swinney said. "This team will have its own journey. It is a new year with new personnel, and new coaches. It is a new challenge with new team chemistry. We have a windshield mentality. Last year was terrific and we celebrated that season in front of 70,000 people in Death Valley a week after the championship game.

"Our goal is to be the best we can be each year, and that never changes."

One of the keys to Clemson's championship run last year and a key to any season is building leadership and that is something that is developed during the off season.

"We had great leadership last year. They were a committed group who wanted to make Clemson the best team in the nation.

"We lost many of those players, but I see the same type of people in those we have returning. They were here last year and know what it takes."

This year's Clemson team must replace 23 lettermen, including 12 starters, seven on offense, four on defense and the punter. The squad will be young, as the roster entering spring practice had just seven scholarship seniors.

But that group has been battle tested, playing 30 games over the last two years and winning 28 of them, including nine wins over top 25 teams, six over top 10 teams. Fifteen of the wins came away from home.

OFFENSE

Much of the preseason discussion about the Clemson football program will center around the quarterback position. For just the fourth time in Swinney's nine full seasons as head coach, he will enter the season without a quarterback who has started at least two games on his roster.

And, he is not looking to replace just any old quarterback, he must replace Deshaun Watson, a two-time Heisman Trophy finalist with a 32-3 career record who took the program to consecutive ACC titles for the first time in 28 years and the school's first National Championship in 35 years.

He graduated from Clemson (in just three years) with 55 school records, including 4,593 passing yards last season when he completed 388 of 579 passes for an ACC-record 41 touchdowns. He was a two-time winner of the Davey O'Brien Award, two-time winner of the Manning Award and won the Unitas Award in 2016, the only year he was eligible for the honor.

Hunter Renfrow

Three quarterbacks on the 2016 roster will be back to challenge for the starting position in 2017. Two true freshmen also will be on the roster, including one who has been on campus and going through spring practice.

"Kelly Bryant is the starter as we enter spring practice," said Swinney. "He has the most experience and has the most knowledge of our system.

"But no one has a lifetime contract. Deshaun was the starter every game the last two years, but he earned it every day. Everyone will get an opportunity to compete."

Bryant, a 6-3 junior from nearby Calhoun Falls, S.C., has played exactly 100 snaps in 12 games as a backup to Watson over the last two years. He has completed 13-18 passes and rushed for 178 yards on 35 carries and three touchdowns.

Tucker Israel is the only other quarterback on the roster who has played in a college game. The redshirt sophomore from Orlando, Fla., broke many of Tim Tebow's Florida high school records at Lake Nona High School.

Zerrick Cooper redshirted the 2016 season after earning a top-300 prospect rating by ESPN out of Jonesboro High in Jonesboro, Ga. He showed arm strength and running ability with the scout team last year.

True freshmen Hunter Johnson, who entered school in January, comes to Clemson from Brownsburg, Ind., where he was Mr. Football in 2016. He was listed as the top quarterback in the nation by some services. Chase Brice is a 6-3 signal caller from Loganville, Ga., who led Grayson High to the state title in 2016. He will enter Clemson in the summer.

The wide receiver position will miss All-American Mike Williams and All-ACC mainstay Artavis Scott. Williams had 98 receptions for 1,361 yards and 11 scores last year. Scott left Clemson as the school's career leader in total receptions and finished last season with 76 catches for 614 yards and five scores.

But the receiving corps is far from bare, as the Tigers return six lettermen receivers who combined for 156 receptions for 1,934 yards and 19 touchdowns. Deon Cain leads the way in terms of reception yardage among the returnees with 724 off 38 catches last year, a 19.1 average. The junior has averaged 18.1 yards per catch for his career, third-best among active ACC receivers.

Hunter Renfrow might be the most well-known player on the team after his game-winning touchdown catch with just one second left in the 35-31 National Championship victory over Alabama. Renfrow had 10 receptions in that game against the Crimson Tide, the most against Nick Saban's team since 2012. Renfrow had 44 catches for 495 yards and six scores last year.

Ray-Ray McCloud is a third returning experienced player at the receiver position. The junior had 49 catches last year, most among returning players, for 472 yards and two scores. His 78 career receptions are eighth among active ACC players.

Cornell Powell (12-87), Trevion Thompson (11-108-1) and Diondre Overton (2-48) are also in the mix at wide receiver, along with redshirt freshman T.J. Chase.

Clemson also must replace All-American tight end Jordan Leggett and his 46 catches for 736 yards and seven scores. A two-time finalist for the John Mackey Award, Leggett was Mr. Clutch throughout the year, catching game-winning scores against Louisville and Florida State, and setting up Renfrow's heroics with a tremendous catch that put the Tigers at first-and-goal against Alabama.

Milan Richard, nephew of former Georgia star Herschel Walker, is a prime candidate for the starting tight end position, but will be challenged by returning lettermen Cannon Smith and D.J. Greenlee. Garrett Williams, who also sees a lot of time as a fullback in short yardage, also returns at the position.

Wayne Gallman, who finished fifth in school history in career rushing yardage, has moved on to the NFL. He had 232 of the 382 running back carries last year and finished with a team best 1,133 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Three returning lettermen will compete for the starting backfield position. C.J. Fuller had 211 yards on 47 rushing attempts a year ago and added seven catches for 62 yards, including a touchdown grab against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl.

Adam Choice is a redshirt junior who had 45-158 on the ground last year. He was the starting running back ahead of Gallman in 2014 before suffering a torn ACL at Boston College. Tavien Feaster is a sophomore from Spartanburg, S.C., who had 37-221 and two scores. He was third on the team in rushing behind Gallman and Watson, and added 7-141 on kickoff returns.

The strength of the offense might be the offensive line where the Tigers return first-team All-ACC linemen Mitch Hyatt and Tyrone Crowder. Three starters are back, with the only absence due to the graduation of two-year starter Jay Guillermo at center. Clemson's offensive line allowed just 16 sacks in 629 pass attempts last year.

Hyatt was a third-team All-ACC selection in 2015 as a true freshman and moved up to first team in 2016. He started 14 of the 15 games last year and already has 2,043 snaps of experience in 30 games over two seasons. He allowed just two sacks all of last year as starting left tackle.

Crowder holds down one of the guard positions. The redshirt senior from Marston, N.C., is a veteran of 1,833 snaps over three years and has 27 starts on his résumé.

2017 OUTLOOK

Like Hyatt, Crowder was third team All-ACC in 2015 and first team in 2016. He did not allow a sack in 2016.

Taylor Hearn, a junior guard from Williston, S.C., and Sean Pollard, a sophomore from Jackson Springs, N.C., are two more young returnees for the offensive line. Hearn played a team-high 1,022 snaps last year at guard and started all 15 games, while Pollard played 584 snaps as a true freshman when he started seven games, the last seven of the season. He played 95 snaps in the win over Alabama.

Justin Falcinelli looks to be the starter at center in place of Guillermo. The junior from Middletown, Md., has played in 24 games for nearly 300 snaps in his career and has experience at multiple positions.

Speaking of multiple positions, senior Maverick Morris is a valuable performer on the offensive line. Capable of playing four spots, he is a veteran of 34 games and 798 snaps in the last three years. Tremayne Anchrum is a sophomore tackle who played 292 snaps in 11 games last year, while John Simpson is a guard who played 160 snaps in nine games as a true freshman.

DEFENSE

Clemson returns seven starters on defense, an improvement in experience over the last two years for Brent Venables' unit. Clemson had to replace eight starters off its 2014 defense, and seven off of the 2015 defense for the National Championship season.

Obviously it did not hinder Venables, who has taken Clemson to a top 15 final ranking in total defense and scoring defense each of the last four years. Clemson finished third in tackles for loss, fourth in the nation in pass defense, eighth in total defense and 10th in scoring defense last season. With seven starters back, Clemson could return to its 2014 level when it led the nation in 11 different defensive categories.

"Brent Venables did a great job last year and was recognized for it by winning the Frank Broyles Award," Swinney said. "I was proud of our defense last year. They showed great improvement over 2015 in terms of giving up big plays. That was an area of emphasis."

Clemson returns five of its starting front seven, including All-America linemen Christian Wilkins and Dexter Lawrence.

Wilkins started all 15 games a year ago at defensive end after playing most of the time at tackle as a freshman in 2015. Now he will return to the middle of the line and join forces with Lawrence to give Clemson the best defensive tackle tandem in the nation.

Wilkins was a first-team All-American as a sophomore end when he had 56 tackles, including 13 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. He also batted down 10 passes, a Clemson record for a defensive lineman. One of the best all-around athletes in the nation, the native of Springfield, Mass., also found time to score a touchdown on a reception, rush 10 yards for a first down, and serve as a blocking back in short yardage.

Lawrence was the ACC Defensive Freshman of the Year in 2016 when he started 11 of the 15 games and had 79 total tackles, most among Clemson defensive linemen, and had seven sacks to tie the school freshman record. He was a unanimous Freshman All-American.

Clelin Ferrell started all 15 games as a redshirt freshman in 2016 and finished with 50 tackles, including 12.5 tackle for loss and six sacks. The native of Richmond, Va., had three tackles for loss, including a sack and three quarterback pressures to earn defensive MVP honors in Clemson's Fiesta Bowl win over Ohio State.

Austin Bryant is expected to hold the other defensive end position. The native of Pavo, Ga., missed the first six games of the year due to an injury, but averaged 25 plays per game the remainder of the season and had 16 tackles, including three for loss. He came off the bench to record eight tackles in Clemson's win over Oklahoma in the 2015 Orange Bowl.

Clemson has plenty of depth across the front four.

Albert Huggins is a junior defensive tackle who had 20 stops, including three sacks last year in just 218 snaps, while Jabril Robinson is an experienced tackle and end who appeared in six games a year ago. Sterling Johnson and redshirt freshman Nyles Pinckney are also young athletic players who will see action at tackle.

Richard Yeargin played in 12 games and had 14 tackles at a defensive end position last season and most certainly will get more playing time this year. Chris Register saw 142 snaps in 11 games at end a year ago as well. Redshirt ends Xavier Kelly and Lasamuel Davis are also athletic players who should see time.

Kendall Joseph is the top returning tackler from the 2016 team, with 124 stops. One of the most improved players in the ACC last year, the linebacker was limited by injury in 2015. Joseph made plays all over the field, amassing 13.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage to tie for the team lead.

One of the unsung heros of the Clemson defense a year ago was Dorian O'Daniel. Now a senior, he started 12 of the 15 games and had 60 tackles, including 50 first hits. He added 10 tackles for loss.

Ben Boulware will be a big loss for the Clemson defense on the field where he had a team-best 131 tackles, and in the locker room where he was a great leader. Tre Lamar looks to be a young player who will fill a lot of Boulware's playing time. Lamar was a high school All-American who was a second-team linebacker last year and had 22 tackles in 102 snaps.

Jalen Williams is another name to watch at linebacker. The junior played in just 10 games and 214 snaps due to injury, but he was productive with 24 tackles in that limited playing time. Chad Smith is another young linebacker who will contribute. He was tied for the top tackler on special teams a year ago with 10 and posted 19 stops overall. James Skalski had 14 tackles in 14 games as a reserve linebacker as well.

J.D. and Judah Davis are two-year lettermen who will be counted on at linebacker as well. The twin sons of former Clemson All-American Jeff Davis showed improvement last year, contributing on special teams. Shaq Smith was a highly regarded linebacker out of high school who redshirted last year.

The secondary lost two first-team All-ACC defenders in Cordrea Tankersley and Jadar Johnson. They each had 65 tackles and combined for nine interceptions.

Ryan Carter and Van Smith are returning starters in the secondary. Carter, a fifth-year senior, found a home at cornerback last year and produced 29 tackles and seven passes broken up to go with 5.5 tackles for loss. Smith had 114 tackles from a starting safety position, including 5.5 for loss. He had an 86-yard interception return against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl.

There are many candidates for the other two starting positions in the secondary. Trayvon Mullen was a top 25 player nationally out of high school according to ESPN. The sophomore from Florida appeared in 13 games and had 15 tackles as a freshman cornerback. Marcus Edmond had just 17 tackles and one interception last year, but he made two game-saving plays during consecutive home wins over Louisville and NC State. Mark Fields is another cornerback candidate who played in 15 games with one start last year. He had a 45-yard interception return for a score at Boston College.

Tanner Muse is a strong candidate to fill Johnson's vacant safety position. He played in all 15 games as a reserve. He showed his athletic ability with a 64-yard interception return for a score in the win over Syracuse. K'von Wallace is a multi-talented player who could play cornerback, linebacker, safety or nickel back.

Isaiah Simmons and 2015 starter Korrin Wiggins are also candidates for playing time at safety, as is returning letterman Denzel Johnson and redshirt freshman Nolan Turner.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Greg Huegel returns to handle the placekicking chores for the third straight year. The original walk-on is 41-51 in his career on field goals, and that 80 percent accuracy is third-best in school history.

Huegel led the nation in total field goals in 2015 with 27 and made some All-America teams. Last year, the Clemson offense was more proficient in the redzone and he attempted just 19 and made 14. Over two seasons, he has scored 251 points, most in Clemson history for a player entering his junior year and on pace to break Chandler Catanzaro's school scoring mark.

The Tigers must replace consistent punter Andy Teasdall, who averaged just 38 yards a punt last year, but had a 36.7 net figure as he allowed just 52 punt return yards all season.

A three-way competition is underway for the punting vacancy. Will Spiers, son of former Clemson baseball All-American Bill Spiers, Michael Batson, son of Clemson strength and conditioning coach Joey Batson, and Carson King, are all vying for the position.

NOTES OF INTEREST

CLEMSON WON ITS SECOND NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Clemson finished the 2016 season ranked No. 1 in the nation in both the Associated Press and Amway coaches polls. It was the second National Championship season in school history and the first since 1981.

Dabo Swinney's Tigers finished with a 14-1 record after defeating previously undefeated and No. 1 ranked Alabama 35-31 in the College Football Playoff Championship game on Monday, Jan. 9. Clemson's 14 wins tied the FBS record for victories in a season (Alabama also finished 14-1). It was the second straight year both Alabama and Clemson finished with 14-1 records.

Clemson achieved the National Championship while playing the nation's most difficult schedule according to the NCAA. Since 1977, the NCAA has rated schedules based on the winning percentage of your FBS opponents when not playing against your team. Clemson is the sixth school to do both in the same season since 1977.

Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools who finished the season with a winning record, including five who won at least 10 games and six who finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn. The six wins over teams that finished in the AP top 25 are the most in school history.

This was the second football national championship in school history and the fifth in any sport. Clemson won the men's soccer titles in 1984 and 1987, and the men's golf title in 2003.

Here are some other notes about Clemson and the polls:
• Clemson is the 19th program to win the Associated Press poll at least twice.
• Dabo Swinney is the 51st different coach to win the AP National Championship.
• Clemson was never ranked No. 1 in 2016 until the final poll and had to defeat a team (Alabama) who had been ranked No. 1 in every poll entering the playoff. It was the first time a team has defeated an opponent in the championship who had been No. 1 in every poll previously since 2006 when Florida defeated Ohio State to win the National Championship. It also happened in 2005 when Texas defeated Southern California and in 1983 when Miami (Fla.) defeated Nebraska.
• This was just the eighth time in history Clemson has been ranked No. 1 in any poll, but two of the eight have come in final polls.
• Clemson is the first non-SEC team to beat Auburn and Alabama in the same year since 1990 when Southern Mississippi achieved the distinction.
• The No. 1 final ranking was the 24th consecutive AP poll Clemson has been ranked in the top five in the nation, the longest active streak in the nation. Alabama is second with 22 in a row.
• Clemson enters the 2017 season with a streak of 36 consecutive top 25 rankings. The school record is 50.
• The 2016 season marked the sixth straight season Clemson has been ranked in the final top 25. It ties for the longest streak in Clemson history (1986-91). Alabama has a nine-year streak and Florida State a seven-year streak.
• Clemson has been ranked in every poll in four of the last five years and 91 of the last 98 polls dating to the 2012 season. This year was the first in school history Clemson was ranked in the top five in every poll.

Clemson Defeated an Alabama Team That …
• Had beaten Clemson 13 consecutive times dating to 1905, including seven in that 13-game span by shutout.
• Had won 26 consecutive games, the third-longest streak in Alabama and SEC history. They outscored the opposition by 25 points per game during the streak.
• Had eight players named first, second or third team All-American.
• Had been ranked No. 1 in the nation the entire season and had been ranked No. 1 for 15 straight polls.
• Had won 16 straight games over top 25 teams, tied for the longest streak of its kind since the AP poll began in 1936. Eight of the wins were over top 10 teams.
• Had won 97 games in a row when holding a double digit lead in the fourth period. Clemson overcame 24-14 margin in the fourth period before winning, 35-31.

Clemson's Offense Gained 511 Yards and Scored 35 on an Alabama Defense That …
• Featured six players who made first, second or third team All-American in 2016.

• Allowed just 11 points per game in 2016, best in the nation. The Crimson Tide allowed 16 points or less in eight straight games.
• Had allowed just three rushing touchdowns all year. Clemson had two in the national championship victory.
• Was coached by Nick Saban, who was 12-1 in conference or National Championship games in his career. He had been 5-0 in National Championship games.

TIGERS WON NATIONAL TITLE WITH TOUGHEST SCHEDULE

Clemson not only won the National Championship in 2016, it did so while playing the nation's toughest schedule according to the NCAA. The NCAA rates schedule based on your opponent's winning percentage when not playing against you.

Clemson's opponents were 107-51 when not playing the Tigers in 2016 for a .677 winning percentage. Clemson joined Penn State (1982), Colorado (1990), Florida (1996 and 2006) and Alabama (2015) as National Champions who played the nation's most difficult schedule by the NCAA standards.

Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools who finished the season with a winning record, including five who won at least 10 games and six who finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn. The six wins over teams that finished in the AP top 25 are the most in school history.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS SIX YEARS IN A ROW

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and coaches poll rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last six years. That was quite an accomplishment in 2016 as Clemson was No. 2 in the preseason of both polls and had to finish No. 1 to exceed the preseason rankings. Well, the Tigers accomplished that by winning the national championship.

Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last six years in the USA Today Coaches poll and has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll five of the six. Clemson was picked eighth in the AP preseason poll in 2013 and finished eighth.

Dabo Swinney is the first coach in history with a six-year streak in that area. John Cooper of Ohio State and Bill Snyder of Kansas State had five-year streaks.

14 WINS

With its victory over Alabama in the National Championship game, Clemson tied the national record for wins in a season, the second consecutive year for the Tigers.

The 14-win mark was first reached in 1996 when BYU finished with a 14-1 record. The Cougars played an exempt game in August, played a game in Hawaii, which does not count towards maximum games played, and played in a bowl game in addition to the 12 regular season games.

JANUARY 9

January 9 will always be remembered as a special date in Clemson football history.

NOTES OF INTEREST

It is the date of Clemson's first win over the nation's No. 1 team in both football and men's basketball. On Jan. 9, 1980 Clemson defeated No. 1 ranked Duke in basketball by an 87-82 score in overtime at Clemson's Littlejohn Coliseum. It marked the first time Clemson defeated the nation's top team in men's basketball.

Then, Clemson recorded its first win over No. 1 in football on January 9, 2017 when the Tigers defeated Alabama to win the football championship. Clemson had been 0-5 against No. 1 in its football history prior to this year.

It is interesting to note that Clemson had never beaten the No. 2 team until its Dec. 31, 2016 win over Ohio State.

CLEMSON 31, OHIO STATE 0

Clemson had a landmark victory over Ohio State in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. Below are some key facts that came out of the victory:
• First shutout of an Urban Meyer coached team. It was his 194th career game as a head coach.
• First shutout of any Ohio State team since 1993 when Michigan beat the Buckeyes, 28-0.
• Ohio State came into the game averaging 42.7 points per game, ninth in the nation.
• Urban Meyer is now 10-3 in bowl games in his career, but he is 0-2 vs. Dabo Swinney.
• Meyer enter the game with a 165-28 record and the .854 winning percentage was the third best in college football history (min. 10 years). Only former Notre Dame coaches Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy are ahead of him.
• Meyer is now 45-4 in his career with more than a week to prepare for an opponent and two of the losses are to Swinney and the Tigers.
• Swinney is just the sixth coach to beat Meyer more than once and now the only coach to be undefeated against him with more than one game played.
• Ohio State was allowing just 282 yards a game entering the contest, but Clemson gained a season high 470 against the Buckeyes.
• The Buckeyes were ranked No. 2 in the nation by AP and the Amway coaches poll. It was the highest ranked team Clemson has beaten in its history at the time. Clemson then broke that mark with the win over No. 1 Alabama in the National Championship game.

DEFENSE RECORDED SHUTOUT VS. HIGH SCORING BUCKEYES

Clemson's defense was very impressive in the victory over second-ranked Ohio State in many areas. Ohio State entered the game with a 42.7 scoring average, ninth best in the nation, but the Tigers not only shut out the Buckeyes, they did not allow Urban Meyer's team to run a possession in the redzone.

Below is a chart that shows Ohio State's averages entering the game and what they did against Clemson.

31-0 VICTORY FIFTH LARGEST OVER A RANKED OPPONENT

Clemson's 31-0 win over No. 2 Ohio State was the fifth largest margin of victory for the program over a top 25 team. What is amazing is that Ohio State was the highest ranked team Clemson has defeated in its history. The Tigers trumped that in the National Championship game by defeating No. 1 Alabama.

CLEMSON'S ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Clemson has 16 ACC championships in its history, more than any other school. Clemson has moved ahead of Florida State with ACC titles each of the last two years. This is the first time Clemson has won back to back ACC titles since 1986-88 when the Tigers won three in a row.

Clemson has 22 conference championships overall, more than any other current ACC school. The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championship under John Heisman, then 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams, and won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight conference titles overall, two Southern Conference and six ACC.

POLL STREAKS

Clemson has been ranked in each of the last 36 AP polls, the fourth longest streak in the nation entering the 2017 season. But, 24 of those rankings have been in the top five in the nation, the longest active streak in the nation. Alabama is second with a 22-poll streak in the top five and Washington is third with three. Clemson's 27-poll streak of top 10 rankings is tied for second with Alabama. Ohio State has the longest streak of top 10s with 38.

Clemson has been ranked in 91 of the 98 polls since the 2011 season, fourth best in the nation. Only Alabama has been ranked in every poll over the last six years, 98-98. Oklahoma is second with 94 poll appearances and Florida State is third with 92 of the 98.

In terms of appearances in the College Football Playoff polls, Clemson has been in the top 25 of all 19 held so far in the three years of the system. Clemson, Alabama, Ohio State, Florida State and Utah are the five schools that have been in all 19 polls over the last three years. Clemson was ranked No. 1 in all six polls in 2015. Ironically, Clemson was never No. 1 in any College Football Playoff poll in 2016, but then won the National Championship.

CLEMSON PROGRAM VS. WINNINGEST COACHES OF ALL-TIME

Clemson defeated Urban Meyer and Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl on Dec. 31, 2016 and it gave Clemson a 2-0 record, both in bowl games, against the third winningest coach (percentage basis) in college football history. Meyer trails only Knute Rockne of Notre Dame (.881) and Frank Leahy of Boston College and Notre Dame (.864) on the all-time list of coaches who have served at least 10 years.

With the win over Meyer, Clemson is now 5-0 in bowl games against the top five winningest coaches in college football history. The Tigers defeated Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl when Leahy was at Boston College, has a 2-0 mark against Meyer, and defeated No. 4 Switzer and Oklahoma in the 1989 Citrus Bowl, and defeated No. 5 Tom Osborne in the 1982 Orange Bowl, a 22-15 win that gave Clemson the national championship.

A look to the current top 50 winningest coaches in FBS history shows that Clemson is a very impressive 12-1 against that list in bowl games in history. The only loss was Nick Saban's win for Alabama over the Tigers in the National Championship game at the end of the 2015 season.

CLEMSON SET ACC RECORD

Clemson established a league record for victory margin by an ACC team over an SEC team in the 56-7 win over South Carolina on Nov. 26. The 49-point win broke the mark of 46 points set in 2003 when Clemson won at South Carolina by a 63-17 margin. So, Clemson now has the top two figures on the list and owns the mark for a home game and a road game.

DABO SWINNEY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- With the win over Alabama, Swinney moved into third place in ACC history in terms of winning percentage. Now 89-28 for a .761 percentage at Clemson, he moved ahead of Danny Ford with the National Championship win over Alabama.
- Swinney joined Bud Wilkinson as the only people to play on and serve as head coach of a team that won the Associated Press National Championship. Wilkinson played on the 1936 Minnesota team that was the first AP National Champion, and was head coach of Oklahoma teams of 1951, 1955 and 1956 that won titles. Swinney played on the 1992 Alabama team that won the AP national title.
- Dabo Swinney is the first coach to beat his alma mater in a postseason game to win the National Championship. At 47, he became the youngest coach to win the National championship since Urban Meyer was 44 when he won the title with Florida in 2008.
- Swinney now has 20 wins over top 25 teams as Clemson head coach, tied for the most in Clemson history with Danny Ford, who had 20 between 1978-89.
- Swinney is the first Clemson coach to beat the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 teams. He did it in consecutive games to win the National Championship in the College Football Playoff.
- With the victory over Alabama, Dabo Swinney has won six bowl games over coaches who already had a national championship on their resume over the last five years. He is the only coach in college football history to do it.
- Clemson has had at least the same finish in the postseason as its preseason ranking in the AP poll each of the last six years. He is the first coach in FBS history to do that six years in a row.
- Clemson has won 49 games in the last four years, the most in a four-year period in Clemson history and tied for the most in ACC history.

SWINNEY HAS SEVEN BOWL WINS IN NINE YEARS

Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney has coached in four bowl games the last two years and has won three of them, all over top four ranked teams. Swinney now has seven bowl wins in his relatively short career, the most in Clemson history and the second most in ACC history.

With the wins over Ohio State and Alabama in the College Football Playoff, Swinney became Clemson's career leader in bowl wins, breaking the previous mark of six held by Danny Ford. Ford and Frank Beamer of Virginia Tech were tied for second behind the 11 of Bobby Bowden entering 2016. But Swinney now has seven, including five over top 10 teams over the last five years, most in the nation.

SWINNEY WON BRYANT AWARD FOR SECOND TIME

Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney won the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award. The presentation was made in Houston, Texas. Swinney also won the award last year and he is the first two-time winner of the Bear Bryant Award.

NOTES OF INTEREST

Swinney led Clemson to the National Championship with a 35-31 victory over previously No. 1 ranked Alabama. It was Clemson's first win over the nation's No. 1 ranked team and it gave Clemson a 14-1 record, tied for the most victories in Clemson and FBS history.

The win over Alabama was Clemson's fifth this year over top 25 teams, including wins over No. 1 Alabama, No. 2 Ohio State and No. 3 Louisville. Clemson defeated six teams that finished in the final top 25 of the AP poll, a school record.

Clemson also won the ACC Championship with a victory over Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game in Dec.. It was the program's second straight ACC title, the first time in 28 years Clemson won consecutive league crowns.

Swinney has been named a National Coach of the Year in four of the last six years. He won the Bobby Dodd Award in 2011, was the FCA National Coach of the Year in 2013 and was named by numerous organizations in 2015, including the Associated Press and the American Football Coaches Association.

Swinney also was named National Coach of the Year by Phil Steele and the Lombardi Award in 2016.

SWINNEY HAS BEATEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP COACH FIVE STRAIGHT YEARS

When Dabo Swinney and the Tigers defeated Urban Meyer and the Ohio State Buckeyes on New Year's Eve, it gave Swinney a bowl win in five consecutive seasons. But these are not run of the mill bowl wins. Swinney became the first coach in history to defeat a coach in a bowl game who already had a national championship on his résumé five straight years. He then added to the accomplishment by beating Nick Saban and Alabama in the National Championship game in Tampa.

Clemson has five wins in bowl games over teams ranked in the top 10 in the nation over the last five years, more than any other school. Alabama is second with four wins over top 10 teams in bowl games since 2012. Clemson has more top 10 wins in bowl games over the last five years than all the other ACC teams combined. Florida State has two, Georgia Tech has one and Louisville has one since 2012.

SWINNEY HAS 20 RANKED WINS OVER TOP 25 TEAMS

Dabo Swinney has 20 wins over top 25 teams in his Clemson career. He is tied with former Clemson coach Danny Ford, who had a 20-12-2 record against top 25 teams from 1978-89.

Swinney has recorded nine wins over top 25 teams over the last two years, four in 2015 and five in 2016. That includes six top 10 wins, four of whom are top five.

For his nine seasons as Clemson coach, Swinney has six top five wins, 12 top 10, 15 top 15, and 17 top 20. Only seven of the 20 have been at home, three on the opponent's home field and 10 at neutral site.

Swinney is 9-1 over the last two years against top 25 teams with the only loss coming to Alabama in the National Championship game at the end of the 2015 season.

SWINNEY JOINED WILKINSON WITH RARE DISTINCTION

When Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney won the National Championship as head coach over Alabama, he joined Bud Wilkinson as the only coaches to have played on an AP National Championship team and served as head coach of an AP National Championship team.

Swinney played on Alabama's 1992 season National Championship team as a wide receiver. That team defeated Miami (Fla.) for the title in the 1993 Sugar Bowl.

Wilkinson played as a quarterback on the University of Minnesota's 1936 team that was proclaimed national champion by the Associated Press in 1936. That was the first year of the AP poll. As a head coach at Oklahoma, Wilkinson led the Sooners to AP national titles in 1950, 1955 and 1956.

Two other coaches have national championships as players and as coaches on their resume's, but the titles are not recognized by the Associated Press.

Frank Leahy played at Notre Dame under Knute Rockne from 1928-30 and the Irish won the national championship in 1929 and 1930 according to the Helms Foundation, the top poll in that area. The AP poll had not started yet. He later coached Notre Dame to AP national titles in 1943, 1946, 1947 and 1949.

Bear Bryant played on an Alabama team in 1934 that was recognized as a national champion by some organizations, but again the AP poll hadn't started yet. He coached Alabama to AP titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1978 and 1979.

Jimmy Johnson played on Arkansas' 1964 team that was named national champion by the Football Writers Association, but they were second in the final AP poll that year.

FORD NAMED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Former Clemson Head Coach Danny Ford has been named to the 2017 National Football Foundation Hall of Fame class.

Ford is one of three coaches in the 2017 Hall of Fame class. He will be joined by former Duke, Florida and South Carolina coach Steve Spurrier and former Mount Union coach Larry Kehres.

Ford is the fourth former Clemson head coach to be named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. The others are John Heisman, Jess Neely, and Frank Howard. Former Clemson players in the Hall of Fame are Banks McFadden, Terry Kinard and Jeff Davis.

Ford coached Clemson from 1978-89 and posted a record of 96-29-4. The highlight of his Clemson tenure took place in 1981 when the Tigers posted a 12-0 record and defeated Nebraska, 22-15, in the 1982 Orange Bowl to win the school's first National Championship.

Ford was just 33 years, seven months and 30 days at the time of the win over Nebraska and he is still the youngest coach to win the National Championship

Ford was just 30 years old when he took over as Clemson head coach in December 1978. In his first game he defeated Hall of Fame Coach Woody Hayes and Ohio State, 17-15, in the 1978 Gator Bowl. In 1979, he coached Clemson to a 16-10 victory at Notre Dame, and he is still the second youngest coach to win at Notre Dame Stadium over the Fighting Irish.

Clemson had an 86-25-4 record in the 1980s and the .765 winning percentage was the fifth best in college football. The other nine coaches in the top 10 in winning percentage in that decade are all in the Hall of Fame.

Ford was especially effective in bowl games as he posted a 6-2 record. Five of the six wins were over coaches already in the Hall of Fame, including Hayes, Tom Osborne of Nebraska, Joe Paterno of Penn State and Barry Switzer of Oklahoma, all coaches who won the National Championship. Ford was 23-8-1 head-to-head as Clemson head coach against coaches who are already in the Hall of Fame. That includes a 2-1 record against Hall of Fame classmate Steve Spurrier.

In his 11 full years as Clemson head coach, Ford won five ACC Championships and had seven top 25 teams. He coached 21 different players who earned All-America honors. Many of his players went on to fame in the NFL, including 10 who combined to win 13 Super Bowl Championships.

The 1969 Alabama graduate is third in ACC history in career winning percentage with a .760 mark. Ford is a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame and was inducted into the school's Ring of Honor in 2013.

VENABLES AND BROOKS WON COACHING AWARDS

Clemson Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables won the 21st annual Frank Broyles Award. It was presented Dec. 6 and is given each year to the top assistant coach in college football, and is given in honor of former Arkansas coach Frank Broyles.

Venables had been a finalist twice previously, 2015 as Clemson defensive coordinator and 2006 as defensive coordinator at Oklahoma. He is the first Clemson assistant coach to win the award.

NOTES OF INTEREST

Despite having to replace six starters from 2015 who made NFL rosters in 2016, the Tigers ranked in the top 25 in the nation in 14 different defensive categories.

Defensive tackles coach Dan Brooks, who retired at the end of the 2016 season, won the AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year Award. Brooks coached the Tigers from 2009-16 and was a major reason Clemson won 28 of 30 games over the last two years. He joined former offensive coordinator Chad Morris as the only Clemson assistants to be named the AFCA National Coach of the Year.

CLEMSON HAS ADDED NEW COACHES ON DEFENSE

Mickey Conn and Todd Bates have jonied the Clemson on-field defensive football staff for the 2017 football season. The openings on the staff developed when defensive tackles coach Dan Brooks retired after the season, and defensive line coach Marion Hobby accepted a position as the defensive line coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Conn, a teammate with Dabo Swinney on Alabama's 1992 National Championship team, was on Clemson's staff this past season as senior defensive analyst and is set to coach the safeties and work closely with Mike Reed, who will coach the cornerbacks.

Bates will coach the defensive line and came to Clemson after three years coaching the same unit at Jacksonville State, a top 10 program in recent years at the FCS level.

Conn came to Clemson from Grayson High School in Georgia where he started the program in 2000 and coached for 16 years. He had a record of 137-48 and took the program to seven region championships. He won at least 10 games in eight of his last nine seasons, including a 13-1 record in 2015.

Conn led the Rams to the State Championship in 2011 when one of his running backs was Wayne Gallman, who just finished his career fifth in rushing yards in Clemson history. Ryan Carter and Nick Schuessler were also developed under Conn at Grayson.

A 2005 Alabama graduate, Bates just finished his third season at Jacksonville State as defensive line coach. In his three seasons the Gamecocks were 33-6 overall, and 23-0 in the Ohio Valley with three conference championships. It marked the first time an Ohio Valley team had three perfect conference seasons in succession.

Jacksonville State finished the 2016 season with a 10-2 record and a No. 6 final ranking in the FCS Coaches Poll. JSU advanced to the FCS Playoffs where they lost to finalist Youngstown State. The Gamecocks' only regular season loss was at LSU.

Bates was part of a defensive staff that helped Jacksonville State to a No. 4 national ranking at the FCS level in total defense, allowing 275 yards per game. The Gamecocks were also second in pass efficiency defense, fifth in rush defense, seventh in sacks, seventh in total interceptions, seventh in scoring defense and eighth in tackles for loss.

Bates played at the University of Alabama from 2001-04. He was the only true freshman to play for the Tide in 2001. Over his career he was selected SEC Defensive Player of the Week twice, and named permanent team captain for the 2004 season.

After college, Bates played for the Tennessee Titans as a defensive end in 2005 and 2006.

FOUR TIGERS NAMED TO ESPN ALL-BOWL TEAM

Deshaun Watson, Jay Guillermo, Carlos Watkins and Cordrea Tankersley were all named to the 2016 All-Bowl Team as selected by ESPN. All four were significant contributors to Clemson's bowl victories over Ohio State and Alabama, triumphs that led to the school's first National Championship since 1981.

Watson quarterbacked Clemson to a combined 981 yards and 66 points against Ohio State and Alabama in the two College Football Playoff games. Alabama was ranked first in the nation in scoring defense and Ohio State was third in the final statistics. Alabama was also first in total defense allowing 262 yards per game, but the Tigers gained 511 yards against the Tide in the 35-31 win.

In the two games combined Watson was 59 of 82 for 679 yards and four scores. He threw for 420 yards against Alabama. Watson finished the year with 4,593 yards passing and an ACC record 41 touchdown passes.

Guillermo started every game at center in 2016 and played his best in the two playoff games with 90 percent film grades in both contests. Guillermo was a first-team All-ACC selection.

Watkins, a first-team All-American, had two sacks in the win over Ohio State and established the school record for sacks in a season by a defensive tackle with 10.5. He added six tackles in the Championship game against Alabama. The senior finished with 82 tackles, including 13.5 tackles for loss.

Tankersley had an interception and four tackles against Ohio State in helping the Tigers to the first shutout of the Buckeyes program in 23 years. He followed that up with five tackles and a pass broken up in the win over Alabama. For the season the first-team All-American had 65 tackles, including 55 first hits, and added four interceptions and 11 passes broken up. Tankersley was a big reason Clemson ranked fourth in the nation in pass efficiency defense.

FOUR TIGERS RANKED AMONG ESPN TOP 50

Four Clemson players are ranked among the top 50 returning players for the 2017 college football season according to the ESPN "Experts." Clemson and Washington have the most players on the list with four apiece. Alabama and Oklahoma have three apiece.

Clemson is the only school in the nation with two of the top 10 players. Christian Wilkins is the highest ranked Clemson player with a No. 8 ranking. A junior in 2017, Wilkins was a first-team All-American as a sophomore defensive end. He had a team best 13.5 tackles for loss and 10 passes broken up, an all-time record for a Clemson defensive lineman.

Just two spots below Wilkins is defensive tackle Dexter Lawrence. As a freshman in 2016, Lawrence led the defensive line in tackles and had seven sacks, tied for the most by a Clemson freshman. Lawrence was a unanimous freshman All-American in 2016.

Offensive tackle Mitch Hyatt is ranked as the No. 30 overall player in the nation for 2017. Hyatt has started 29 of Clemson's 30 games over the last two years. He was a third-team All-ACC selection in 2015 as a freshman and a first-team choice in 2016.

Wide receiver Deon Cain is ranked No. 47 on the ESPN list of top 50 players for 2017. As a sophomore last year he had nine touchdown catches, second on the team behind Mike Williams, who had 11. Cain ranked 19th in the nation in yards per reception as well.

Louisville quarterback Lamar Jackson is ranked as the No. 1 player in the nation for 2017 by ESPN. He is one of six players on the list who will play against Clemson in 2017. The others are Derwin James of Florida State (6), Bradley Chubb of NC State (22), Harold Landry of Boston College (23), Deondre Francois of Florida State (29), and Braden Smith of Auburn (50).

SEVEN PLAYERS NAMED TO ALL-AMERICA TEAMS

A school record seven Clemson football players were named to various 2016 All-America teams. Ben Boulware, Jordan Leggett, Cordrea Tankersley, Carlos Watkins, Deshaun Watson, Christian Wilkins and Mike Williams have all been named to various first, second or third team squads.

The seven different players recognized is one more than the six selected on the 2015 team that finished second in the nation. The 1981 National Championship team had five different players selected to All-America teams.

The Associated Press announced its All-America team, and five different Clemson players were named over the three teams, the most in history. The 2015 team had four players make the Associated Press team. In 2016, Watson, Boulware and Watkins made the second team, while Wilkins and Tankersley were third-team selections.

Wilkins was named first-team All-American according to the Football Writers Association and Phil Steele. Wilkins was also a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, which is presented to the top defensive player in college football. Tankersely was recognized as a first-team All-American by USA Today.

Williams was named a second-team All-American by Walter Camp, Phil Steele and SB Nation, while Boulware was named a second team All-American by the Football Writers Association, Walter Camp, USA Today, Phil Steele and Associated Press.

Watson, who finished second in voting for the Heisman Trophy, was the second-team All-America quarterback by the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Sports Illustrated and Sporting News.

NINE TIGERS PARTICIPATED IN NFL SCOUTING COMBINE

A school record nine former Clemson football players participated in the 2017 NFL Scouting Combine at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, Ind. The event took place from Feb. 28 through March 6.

The Clemson players invited included Ben Boulware (LB), Wayne Gallman (RB), Jadar Johnson (S), Jordan Leggett (TE), Artavis Scott (WR), Cordrea Tankersley (CB), Deshaun Watson (QB), Carlos Watkins (DT) and Mike Williams (WR). All nine helped Clemson to a 14-1 record and the National Championship this past season.

The nine players invited stand as a Clemson record, breaking the mark of eight set last year. Clemson had seven former players invited to the Combine in 1999, 2007 and 2011. Clemson tied for fourth in the nation in terms of total players invited to the 2017 NFL Combine. Michigan had the most with 14, while Alabama and LSU had 10 apiece.

The program has had at least one first-round draft choice each of the last four years. DeAndre Hopkins was a first-round pick by Houston in 2013 and was named to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Sammy Watkins was the No. 4 overall selection of the 2014 NFL draft by the Buffalo Bills. At the 2015 draft, Vic Beasley and Stephone Anthony went in the first round. Beasley led the NFL in sacks in 2016. Shaq Lawson was a first-round selection at the 2016 draft.

Clemson has had 38 players drafted by the NFL over the last seven years, or since Head Coach Dabo Swinney took over the program. That ranks tied for sixth in the nation in total draft selections since the 2010 draft. Clemson has had at least four players drafted every year, something only Oklahoma, LSU and Alabama can claim.

Clemson had 39 former players on NFL rosters last year, the most for the program in one season. Thirty-three of them played in at least one game and 24 of them made at least one start.

Clemson Yearly Combine Invitations since 1999:
1999 (7), 2000 (0), 2001 (3), 2002 (0), 2003 (3), 2004 (2), 2005 (4), 2006 (3), 2007 (7), 2008 (2), 2009 (6), 2010 (6), 2011 (7), 2012 (6), 2013 (3), 2014 (5), 2015 (6), 2016 (8), 2017 (9)

SENIORS OF 2016 TIED ACC RECORD FOR WINS

Clemson's 2016 senior class tied the ACC record for wins in a four-year period. The group finished with a 49-7 record for its 56 games, tying the record of 49 wins by Florida State's senior class of 2015. The 2016 total was three more than any other Clemson senior class.

The 2017 senior class has 38 wins in the bank, so a 12-win season in 2017 will make it the record holder with an even 50. Twelve wins would also make Clemson's 2017 seniors just the fifth senior class nationwide to have 50 wins in a four-year period. The record is 51 wins held by the Alabama seniors of 2016. Alabama's seniors of 2015 had 50, as did Ohio State's senior class of 2015 and Boise State's senior class of 2011.

TEAM ACADEMIC NOTES

• Thirteen Clemson football student-athletes, including five All-Americans, earned their undergraduate degrees during graduation ceremonies at Littlejohn Coliseum in December 2016. The All-Americans who earned degrees were Ben Boulware, Jordan Leggett, Carlos Watkins, Deshaun Watson and Mike Williams. It marked the first time in Clemson football history five All-Americans graduated on the same day.

• An additional three players had received their undergraduate degrees prior to the 2016 season, so 16 Clemson players already had their undergraduate degree when Clemson won the National Championship on January 9.

• Clemson had four team members named to the All-ACC Academic Team in 2016. That list included Watson, Boulware, Christian Wilkins and Dexter Lawrence. The first three student-athletes were All-Americans on the field and Lawrence was named a unanimous freshman All-American.

• In Dabo Swinney's time as Clemson head coach, he has had 157 seniors and 151 of them have earned their college degrees.

• For the sixth straight year, Clemson was cited by the American Football Coaches Association for a graduation success rate (GSR) in the top 10 percent in the nation. Clemson's rate for the release issued on Dec. 5, 2016 was over 90 percent.

• Clemson is the only school in the nation to rank in the top 12 of APR scores and in the top 15 of both college football polls each of the last five years. It could go to six years when the APR scores are released by the NCAA in May.

• Clemson, Duke and Northwestern are the only schools in the country to rank in the top 10 percent of APR scores each of the last six years.

• Clemson ranked second to Stanford nationally in academic success in a ranking of the top 25 college football teams for 2016. The academic ranking is based on the graduation success rate.

• Forty-eight members of the Clemson football team made the academic honor roll during the fall of 2016 when the Tigers were making their run to the National Championship, tied for the most in any semester in program history.

• A total of 103 underclassmen filed for the 2017 NFL draft. Eight of the 103 had their college degrees when they filed. Four of the eight played for Clemson in 2016 (Wayne Gallman, Artavis Scott, Watson and Williams).

• Twenty-nine former Clemson football players who played their senior year at Clemson were on NFL rosters in 2016. Twenty-five of them have their degrees from Clemson a .862 graduation rate.

• Clemson quarterback Deshaun Watson was the recipient of the 2016 Bobby Bowden Award. It is presented each year to the top student-athlete in college football.

• Watson also won a Weaver-James-Corrigan honorary scholarship from the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2017. He was the only male student-athlete at Clemson so honored and one of just six football players in the ACC to win the award.

WATSON SWEPT QUARTERBACK AWARDS IN 2016

Deshaun Watson swept the national quarterback awards in 2016. He won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Manning Award for the second time each and also captured the Johnny Unitas Award, which goes to the top senior quarterback in the nation. It is an award you can only win once.

Watson played in four career postseason games and earned MVP honors in three of those contests. In those four games, he threw for 1,271 yards and nine touchdowns. In two College Football Playoff National Championship games against Alabama's vaunted defense, he tallied 825 passing yards and seven touchdowns.

For the 2016 season, the Gainesville, Ga., native completed 388-of-579 passes for 4,593 yards and 41 touchdowns while also rushing for 629 yards and nine touchdowns. He ranked in the top four in the nation in quarterback rating, passing yards and passing touchdowns.

For his career, Watson posted a 32-3 record as the Tigers' starting quarterback, tallying over 11,000 yards of total offense with 115 touchdowns while leading his team to a pair of ACC Championships (winning MVP in each of those title games), two national title game appearances and the ultimate crown – the national championship.

Watson was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy for the second straight year. He is the only ACC player in history to be a two-time finalist for the award.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

There is a strong coaching heritage over the 121 years of Clemson football that dates to the early 1900s, when John Heisman led the program. Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford continued the winning and joined Heisman in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Dabo Swinney has been at Clemson for just nine years as head coach, but he cemented himself as a coaching legend when he led the Tigers to the 2016 National Championship, the second in school history (1981).

Swinney's team defeated the top two teams according to the national polls in consecutive games. Clemson shut out Ohio State 31-0 in the Fiesta Bowl, the first shutout suffered by head coach Urban Meyer in his career, and the first for Ohio State since 1993. Then, the Tigers earned a rematch with No. 1 Alabama, and for the first time in school history, took down the top-ranked team in a second epic battle with the Crimson Tide. Deshaun Watson's touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left gave Clemson a 35-31 victory in Tampa, Fla. Swinney won the Bear Bryant Award as the national coach of the year for the second consecutive season.

With a preseason No. 2 national ranking, Clemson lived up to the hype after compiling a 14-1 record and earning a spot in the College Football Playoff a second straight year. Along the way, Clemson knocked off five top-25 foes, including third-ranked Louisville on Oct. 1. The Tigers exorcised several road demons, winning at historically tough places such as Auburn, Georgia Tech and Florida State during the 2016 campaign.

He coached Watson to a pair of record-setting seasons. The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first player in FBS history to pass for at least 4,000 yards and rush for at least 1,000 yards in a season in 2015, and followed by setting an ACC record with 41 passing touchdowns in 2016.

Watson was named the ACC Player-of-the-Year in 2015 and Most Valuable Player of the ACC Championship Game in both 2015 and 2016. He won the Davey O'Brien and Manning Awards in back to back seasons, and was named Most Valuable Player of Clemson's Fiesta Bowl and National Championship wins as well. Watson won the 2016 Johnny Unitas and Bobby Bowden awards as well.

Over the past six seasons, Clemson has compiled a 70-13 record, the most wins in a six-year period in school history. Forty-four of the victories have come against ACC teams. The 2016 seniors finished their careers with a school-record 49 wins.

Clemson was in the top 10 of APR scores and the final top 25 of the AP and USA Today polls from 2011-15, the only FBS program that could make that claim (2016 data is slated to be released in May).

In nine years (eight full seasons) as the Tigers' head coach, Swinney has directed Clemson to a 89-28 overall record (.761) — best by a coach in school history — and a 54-15 ACC regular-season mark (.783). He has also led the Tigers to the ACC Championship game four times, won three ACC titles, won or shared five ACC Atlantic Division titles, and won seven bowl games (five against top-10 teams). His teams have compiled 20 wins over ranked teams in his head-coaching career, including 12 over top-10 teams.

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015, and led the Tigers to their first National Championship Game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma 37-17 in the Capital One Orange Bowl on December 31. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship game, but came up just short, 45-40, in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 National and two ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors. The win over Oklahoma made him just the second coach in college football history (joining Alabama's Bear Bryant) to beat the Sooners in two different bowl games. The Tigers defeated four teams that finished the season in the top 15 of both polls, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, North Carolina and Florida State.

In 2015, a record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in school history. In 2016, fifteen players were honored, including three first-team offensive line selections (also a school first).

The 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons were also noteworthy, with three top-15 final rankings in the polls. Clemson joined Alabama, Florida State, Ohio State and Oregon as the only schools in the nation to make that claim. Each of Clemson's teams from 2011-16 also won 10+ games, the first time the program has done it six straight seasons. Only Alabama has duplicated the feat.

In 2014, Clemson overcame a slew of season-ending injuries and a difficult road schedule to register a 10-3 overall record and 6-2 mark in ACC regular-season games. Evidence of the mass injuries was shown by the fact that 48 different Tigers started at least one game among the 24 regular positions.

The Tigers finished the 2014 season ranked No. 15 in both the AP and coaches polls and was No. 17 in the final College Football Playoff ranking. The top-15 ranking marked the fourth straight year Clemson finished ranked in the polls under Swinney, who was named 2014 Grant Teaff National Coach-of-the-Year by FCA. He was also a finalist for the 2014 Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year Award, and won the Gene Stallings Award. Swinney's Tigers joined Alabama, Florida State and Oregon as the only schools in the nation ranked in the top 25 of the final polls each season from 2011-14.

Losses at No. 12 Georgia and No. 1 Florida State within Clemson's first three games of the 2014 season saw the Tigers in contention in the fourth quarter in both, including an overtime loss to the Seminoles. But Clemson rebounded and won its next six games, all against ACC foes.

With the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl win over Oklahoma and Head Coach Bob Stoops by a score of 40-6, Swinney became the first and only coach in history to win three bowl games in consecutive seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title. He has now done it five years in a row.

Defense was the key to success for the 2014 Tigers, as they led in the nation in total defense, pass efficiency defense, first downs allowed, third-down conversion percentage defense and tackles for loss along with being in the top five in many other defensive categories.

Defensive end Vic Beasley was named ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year and was a finalist for multiple national awards and a first-team All-American thanks to his 21.5 tackles for loss and 12 sacks. Beasley was a Pro Bowl selection in 2016 after leading the NFL in sacks over the regular season, while helping the Atlanta Falcons to their second Super Bowl appearance along with fellow 2013 graduate Grady Jarrett.

Clemson's young 2014 offense was set back with the injury to first-year freshman quarterback Watson, who suffered injuries that forced him to miss more than half the season. He still had 14 passing touchdowns against only two interceptions and a 188.6 passing efficiency, one of the best figures in the country.

The Tigers' top pass catcher (Artavis Scott) and rusher (Wayne Gallman) were also freshmen. Scott had 76 receptions for 965 yards and eight touchdowns, while Gallman had 769 rushing yards and four touchdowns.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games for the second year in a row. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. The Tigers had a 4-0 record in ACC road games, the first time that happened since 1995.

The Tigers were No. 12 in the final BCS standings. It was the third straight year Clemson finished in the top 15 of the BCS standings, one of only six schools that could make that claim. Clemson, who was ranked No. 7 in the final USA Today poll and No. 8 in the final AP poll, was also one of only five programs ranked in the top 20 of every BCS standing from 2011 to 2013.

For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2013. Swinney was also one of 16 semifinalists for national coach-of-the-year by the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach-of-the-Year Award for the second year in a row.

The Clemson offense continued to put up record-setting numbers in 2013, as it averaged 40.2 points and 507.7 yards per game. The Tiger defense also finished in the top 25 in the nation in scoring defense, total defense and turnovers forced. Clemson joined Florida State as the only schools in the nation to finish in the top 25 in the nation in scoring offense, scoring defense, total offense and total defense.

Tajh Boyd broke almost every Clemson career record for quarterbacks thanks in part to 2013, when he completed 68.5 percent of his passes for 3,851 yards and 34 touchdowns. He also added a team-high 10 rushing touchdowns. Boyd's 107 career passing touchdowns and 133 total touchdowns were ACC records as well.

Sammy Watkins was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award and was a first-team All-American, as he had 101 receptions for 1,464 yards and 12 touchdowns. He established Tiger career records for receptions, receiving yards and tied the receiving touchdowns mark as well.

The 2012 season (11-2) was a groundbreaking year for Swinney's Tigers when looking at the overall consistency of the program. The seven conference wins in the regular season were then a school record, while Clemson was co-champion of the ACC Atlantic Division.

With Clemson's thrilling 25-24 win over No. 7 LSU in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, the Tigers finished the season ranked No. 9 in the USA Today poll. It was Clemson's first top-10 finish in one of the two major polls since 1990. Clemson also reached the 11-win mark for the first time since its 1981 National Championship season. The Tigers finished No. 14 in the final BCS standings as well.

The 2012 campaign featured a record-setting offense. Clemson had six of the 11 offensive players on the All-ACC first team chosen by the media and set over 80 Tiger team and individual records.

Leading the way was Boyd, the ACC Player-of-the-Year. The quarterback joined center Dalton Freeman as first-team All-Americans by AFCA, just the third time since 1945 that the AFCA first-team All-America quarterback and center were from the same school.

Boyd's favorite wide receiver, DeAndre Hopkins, had 18 receiving touchdowns, second-most in the nation, and was a second-team All-American. He was a big reason Clemson scored a then school-record 533 points.

Swinney was a finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year Award for the third time. He was also one of 16 semifinalists for national coach-of-the-year by the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach-of-the-Year Award.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech 38-10 in the ACC Championship game in Charlotte, N.C. It tied for the highest-ranked team the Tigers defeated in history. The win, the Tigers' second over the Hokies in 2011, gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990.

The Tigers jumped out to an 8-0 record and a No. 6 national ranking after being unranked in the preseason. Games 3-5 marked a tough stretch, as Clemson hosted No. 19 Auburn, who entered with a national-best 17-game winning streak, and No. 11 Florida State along with a road game at No. 10 Virginia Tech. The Tigers were victorious in all three contests by scores of 38-24, 35-30 and 23-3, respectively, marking the first time in history that an ACC team won three consecutive games over top-25 ranked (AP) teams. Clemson also held Virginia Tech without a touchdown for the first time in a game at Blacksburg since 1995.

For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year in 2011 to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since 1981, when Danny Ford directed Clemson to the national title.

Swinney, who was also one of five finalists for the Eddie Robinson National Coach-of-the-Year Award, one of 10 finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year Award, one of 10 finalists for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award and received the Regional AFCA Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2011, led the Tigers to their first Orange Bowl berth since 1981 with the help of five First-Team All-ACC players.

Dwayne Allen received the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and totaled 50 receptions for 598 yards and eight touchdowns. Andre Branch, a finalist for the Hendricks Award, had an ACC-high 17 tackles for loss and an ACC-high 10.5 sacks, including tying school-records for tackles for loss (6) and sacks (4) in Clemson's win at No. 10 Virginia Tech. Freeman was a finalist for the Rimington Trophy as well.

Watkins was one of the most dynamic freshmen in the nation. The ACC Rookie-of-the-Year totaled 82 receptions for 1,219 yards and 12 touchdowns along with a 25.0-yard average and one touchdown on kickoff returns despite missing one game due to injury. Watkins teamed up with Andre Ellington to give Clemson a 1,000-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher, as Ellington had 1,178 rushing yards and 11 rushing touchdowns. Watkins was also an AP First-Team All-American, the fourth in college football history as a first-year freshman, non-kicker.

Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson's program into a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25, just the second time in 21 years the Tigers faced two top-25 non-conference opponents in the regular season.

The 2010 season included wins over bowl teams Georgia Tech, Maryland and NC State. NC State was ranked No. 23 in the nation and was leading the ACC in scoring. But the defense held NC State and Russell Wilson to just one touchdown and 13 points. The team excelled defensively in 2010 and was 13th in the nation in scoring defense and in the top 25 in both total defense and passing defense.

C.J. Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American in 2009 and Da'Quan Bowers duplicated the feat on the defense a year later. Bowers won the 2010 Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player and he received the Hendricks Award as the country's top defensive end. He was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award. He led the nation in sacks (15.5) and tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (26).

In 2009, Swinney's first full year as head coach, he led the Tigers to their first championship of the ACC's Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award.

Swinney accumulated nine wins, second-most among FBS coaches in their first full year behind Oregon's Chip Kelly. The nine wins tied for fourth-most in ACC history for a first-year head coach. He also led the Tigers to their first bowl win since 2005 in the 21-13 victory over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

The Tigers reached the nine-win mark playing a schedule that included four games against top-15 opponents, just the second year in school history (1999 was the other) that Clemson played four games against teams ranked in the top 15 of the AP poll. The Tigers' three FBS non-conference opponents had a combined record of 29-10 in 2009. Clemson gave Rose Bowl-bound TCU one of its stiffest tests in a 14-10 Horned Frog victory on Sept. 26.

Swinney's first season included a six-game winning streak at midseason, a streak that saw the Tigers score 34+ points in every contest, a first in school history. During that stretch, the Tigers defeated No. 8 Miami (Fla.) on the road. The 40-37 overtime victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road in history.

That was the second of six straight wins, the longest winning streak for the Clemson program in four years. The streak also included a 40-24 win over Florida State and Bobby Bowden, the Hall of Fame coach who is first in victories in FBS history. The winning streak brought Clemson to a No. 15 national ranking in the AP poll after the ACC Atlantic Division clinching victory over Virginia on Nov. 21.

The Tigers had success on offense, defense and special teams during the 2009 season. They were 28th in the nation and third in the ACC in scoring offense (31.1), while the defense was 20th in total defense (314.3) and seventh in pass defense (162.8). Clemson tied for fifth in the country in interceptions (21) as well.

Clemson added a school-record six kick returns for touchdowns in 2009, four on kickoff returns and two on punt returns.

The main reason Clemson was so outstanding on special teams was the play of college football's most dynamic player (C.J. Spiller) in 2009. The Tiger running back was named MVP of the ACC in 2009 and was a Consensus All-American. He had five kick returns for touchdowns during the 2009 season, an all-time Clemson record, and established the NCAA record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a career with seven. He was also the only FBS player to score at least one touchdown in every game in 2009.

Overall, the Tigers held down three positions on the All-ACC First-Team and five spots on the second team. Only Virginia Tech had more representatives.

In October 2008, Swinney was named Clemson interim head coach, replacing Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record over the remainder of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale. That strong finish led to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, the interim tag was removed from the title and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970 and those coaches had combined for a record of 26-86-2. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as the head coach, Swinney became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and Clemson Nation in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk."

Prior to the game against the Yellow Jackets, Swinney decided to have his team depart buses outside the Lot 5 parking lot near the WestZone at Memorial Stadium and experience the gameday atmosphere. Dressed in jackets and ties, the team was embraced by thousands of Tiger fans who stood 10 deep for the 200-yard march to the stadium. It was the centerpiece of his "All In" theme during his first week as head coach. It is a tradition that has continued.

In his second week as head coach, an off-week, he invited the Clemson student body to a practice, and nearly 1,000 students showed up. He spoke to the group and actually allowed some students to participate during practice, as they were selected to attempt a field goal, punt against a live rush and field a punt. He also took the entire team to the Greenville Children's Hospital for a visit with young men and women fighting cancer.

He has continued his community involvement through his foundation. His foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich. Many schools followed his lead the remainder of the season.

The Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award evaluates coaching performances in terms of coaching excellence, sportsmanship, integrity, academic excellence and community commitment. It is easy to see why Swinney was a national finalist for that award in his first full season as head coach in 2009, and again in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his 14 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers have finished in the top 25 of the polls 10 times and have totaled 29 wins over top-25 teams, including victories over Florida State (7), Virginia Tech (3), Auburn (2), Miami (Fla.) (2), Ohio State (2), Oklahoma (2), Georgia (1), LSU (1), Tennessee (1) and Alabama (1) during his tenure in Tigertown. That includes 18 top-25 wins as a head coach.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six years as an assistant coach. In his first year, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Tiger history. He has coached a First or Second-Team All-ACC wideout (Derrick Hamilton, Airese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Watkins, Hopkins, Scott, Mike Williams) in 13 of his 14 seasons in Tigertown, also unprecedented at Clemson.

In 2004 and 2005, he coached the ACC reception champion (Currie (2004), Stuckey (2005)). It was the first time Clemson had two different players lead the ACC in receptions in consecutive years. In 2007, Kelly led the ACC in yards, giving Swinney an ACC receiving king three out of four years. Stuckey earned First-Team All-ACC honors in back-to-back years, a first for a Tiger wide receiver in 25 years.

In 2007, Swinney coached Kelly, a First-Team All-ACC selection who led the league in receiving yards per game and touchdown catches (11). He also finished second in receptions per game with 88 catches.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. It marked the second straight year that he was lauded by the website as a top-25 national recruiter. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN.com when he signed 11 players. He was named one of the top-25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2007 as well.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet," because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in 1989. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 National Championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC Championship game.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant from 1993-95 at Alabama, where he coached in the 1994 Gator Bowl and 1995 Citrus Bowl. In December 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under Head Coach Gene Stallings (now in the Hall of Fame) and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC Western Division title and make an Outback Bowl appearance. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends under Head Coach Mike DuBose.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three seasons. At the end of the 1999 campaign, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship game. Wide receiver Freddie Milons was the game MVP.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with 10+ wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC Championships (1989,92,99) and five SEC Western Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

Swinney married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will (17), Drew (15) and Clay (12). Will is enrolling in the summer as a freshman on the 2017 Clemson team.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JEFF SCOTT

Co-Offensive Coordinator
Wide Receivers
10th Season

- Clemson has been to a bowl game each of his nine years as a full-time assistant coach. The Tigers advanced to the National Championship Game in consecutive seasons, winning the top prize in 2016 with a 35-31 victory over Alabama.
- Named one of the top-25 recruiters in the nation and ACC recruiter-of-the-year in 2015 by Rivals.
- Named co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl. Clemson finished the 2015 season with 11 straight games of at least 500 yards of total offense.
- Coached 2016 team to record-setting passing yardage (5,009) and touchdowns (45), while averaging 503.5 yards per game.
- Coached First-Team All-ACC wide receiver Mike Williams in 2016. Williams had his second 1,000-yard season and a team-leading 11 touchdowns, and was a second-team Walter Camp All-American as well.
- Coached wide receiver Artavis Scott to three career All-ACC honors (2014-16). Scott broke Sammy Watkins' school record with 245 career receptions.
- Named one of the top-10 recruiters in the nation by ESPN in 2014, one of the top-14 recruiters in the country by NFL.com in 2014 and one of the top-25 recruiters by Rivals in 2012 and 2014.
- Coached First-Team All-ACC and first-team All-America wide receiver Sammy Watkins in 2013. He had a school-record 101 receptions for a school-record 1,464 yards and 12 touchdowns. He also set or tied school career records for receptions (240), receiving yards (3,391) and receiving touchdowns (27).
- In 2012, he coached first-round draft pick DeAndre Hopkins to a second-team All-America season. Hopkins had 82 receptions for 1,405 yards and an ACC-record 18 touchdowns, second-most in the nation.
- Coached an All-American every year from 2011-13 and a first-round draft pick in both 2012 and 2013.
- Coached four wideouts (Jacoby Ford, Hopkins, Martavis Bryant, Watkins) who were NFL draft picks in his first six full years as wide receivers coach.
- Played a big role in Clemson winning ACC titles three of the last six seasons. He has been on the staff of five ACC Atlantic Division titles in the last eight years.
- In 2011, he coached one of the top receiving duos in school history in Watkins and Hopkins. Watkins, the national freshman-of-the-year and a first-team All-American, had 82 receptions for 1,219 yards and 12 touchdowns. Hopkins had 72 receptions for 978 yards, adding five touchdowns.
- Helped the Tigers to a top-25 ranking and the ACC Atlantic Division title in his first full season as an assistant in 2009. He mentored Ford, a Second-Team All-ACC wideout who was an NFL draft pick by the Raiders.
- Took over as Clemson's recruiting coordinator in December 2008 and the Tigers put together a top-10 signing class in his first season (2009) at the position. Then in both 2011 and 2012, Clemson had top-10 recruiting classes.
- Son of former Tiger Associate Head Coach Brad Scott (1999-10),

MIKE REED

Assistant Coach
Cornerbacks
5th Season

- In four years on staff, has helped the Tigers to a 49-7 record and consecutive appearances in the National Championship Game. The 2016 team won the school's second national title after defeating No. 1 Alabama by a score of 35-31.
- Coached a pair of First-Team All-ACC defensive backs in 2016, safety Jadar Johnson and cornerback Cordrea Tankersley.
- His defensive backs were a big reason the 2015 Tigers were fourth nationally in third-down conversion percentage defense.
- Coached First-Team All-ACC cornerback Mackensie Alexander, Second-Team All-ACC safety Jayron Kearse and Third-Team All-ACC cornerback Cordrea Tankersley.
- His defensive backs were a big reason the 2014 defense led the nation in total defense (260.8), while it was in the top five in many other statistical categories. He also coached cornerback Garry Peters, who was a First-Team All-ACC selection.
- His defensive backs combined for 15 interceptions in 2013. Bashaud Breeland, who had a team-tying-high four interceptions and 74 tackles, was a Second-Team All-ACC selection and a fourth-round draft pick.
- His defensive backs were a big reason Clemson was 10th in the nation in turnovers forced (30) in 2013.
- Was the defensive backs coach at NC State for six seasons (2007-12).
- Has been an assistant coach at the college level for 12 years and at the NFL level for five seasons. He coached NC State All-American David Amerson, who is third in ACC history in career interceptions (18). As a professional coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, he worked with former Clemson All-American and nine-time Pro Bowl selection Brian Dawkins.
- Helped the Wolfpack to four bowl games in his six years with the program. That includes 2012, when NC State beat a top-five Florida State team and played Vanderbilt in the Music City Bowl.
- Three times in his last five years there, NC State finished in the top 20 in the nation in interceptions, including 2012 when it was 20th with 16 interceptions.
- The 2011 NC State squad had 27 interceptions, the most by an FBS school since 2003, when Nebraska had 32. The total tied for second-most in ACC history and the most since 1994, when Virginia had 27 interceptions.
- In 2011, Amerson had 13 interceptions to lead the nation, five more than any other player. It tied for the third-most interceptions in NCAA history. Amerson also led the nation in interception return yards (205) and tied for the lead in interception returns for touchdown (2). Amerson was a unanimous All-American in 2011, when he was also a Thorpe Award finalist and won the Jack Tatum Award.
- Played on three bowl teams that finished with top-25 rankings in the AP poll.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BRANDON STREETER

Assistant Coach
Quarterbacks / Recruiting Coordinator
3rd Season

- Came to Clemson as the recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach in December 2014 after serving three seasons (2012-14) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Richmond.
- Coached Clemson's first two-time Heisman Trophy finalist Deshaun Watson. He became the first player in FBS history with at least 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season in 2015, and ended his career in dramatic fashion as the Most Valuable Offensive Player of Clemson's thrilling 35-31 win over Alabama that delivered the school's second national championship in 2016.
- Watson was two-time recipient of the Davey O'Brien and Manning awards, given to the nation's top quarterback. He also won the 2016 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Bobby Bowden Award.
- Helped the 2015 Tigers to 11 straight games with at least 500 yards of total offense, a school record.
- As recruiting coordinator, he spearheaded Clemson's consensus top-10 class in February 2016.
- Six of the seven teams he worked with as an offensive coordinator from 2008-14 finished the season in the top 25 of the FCS poll. That included the 2014 Richmond team that entered the FCS playoffs ranked No. 16. Five of the last eight teams were conference champions or co-champions.
- Helped the 2014 Richmond team to a 9-5 record and a bid to the FCS playoffs, as the Spiders reached the second round.
- Guided Richmond to a top-20 finish in passing offense each year from 2012-14. That included a 314-yard average, eighth-best in the nation, in 2014. The Spiders also averaged 461 yards per game, 19th-most in the nation, and were second in third-down conversion percentage (51.6) and third in first downs (332).
- Richmond was seventh in the nation in passing yards (328) in 2013. Virtually every Richmond individual game, season and career school passing record was established during the 2013 season. The 2012 Richmond offense was 20th in passing offense and 21st in scoring offense. The Spider offense saw five players earn All-CAA recognition.
- Streeter served as quarterbacks coach at Liberty for six years, the last three as offensive coordinator. In 2011, Liberty led the Big South Conference in passing yards and pass efficiency.
- In 2010, Liberty averaged 36.5 points per game, a better mark than in 2009, when the Flames led the nation in scoring (36.4). That Liberty team won the Big South Conference title for a fourth straight year.
- Served as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 2004 and 2005, when Dabo Swinney was an assistant coach. Streeter worked with quarterback Charlie Whitehurst during those two seasons.
- Three-time letterman at Clemson from 1997-99. He was Clemson's starting quarterback the last two years. Also was a three-time member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll.
